God's Infinite Mercy: A Gift for All Through the Church

Saint Faustina Kowalska, guided by the Holy Spirit, served as a vessel for a powerful message: God's infinite mercy is available to all through the Church.

A Call to Devotion

Jesus entrusted Sr. Faustina with a specific mission: to promote devotion to Divine Mercy through the image, the Chaplet, and the Feast. This devotion is not a separate path to God, but rather a way to deepen our understanding of His mercy as revealed through the Church's teachings and traditions.

Rooted in Scripture and Tradition

The message of Divine Mercy isn't new. It flows from the very wellspring of our faith. The Old Testament foreshadows God's merciful plan, and Jesus Christ embodies it perfectly. The Church Fathers and countless saints have throughout history emphasized God's compassionate nature. Sr. Faustina's revelations serve as a powerful reminder of this cornerstone of Catholic belief.

The Church: Conduit of God's Mercy

The Sacraments, especially Confession and the Eucharist, are the primary channels of God's mercy. Through the Church, established by Christ himself, we receive the graces necessary to experience God's forgiveness, healing love, and strength to overcome sin.

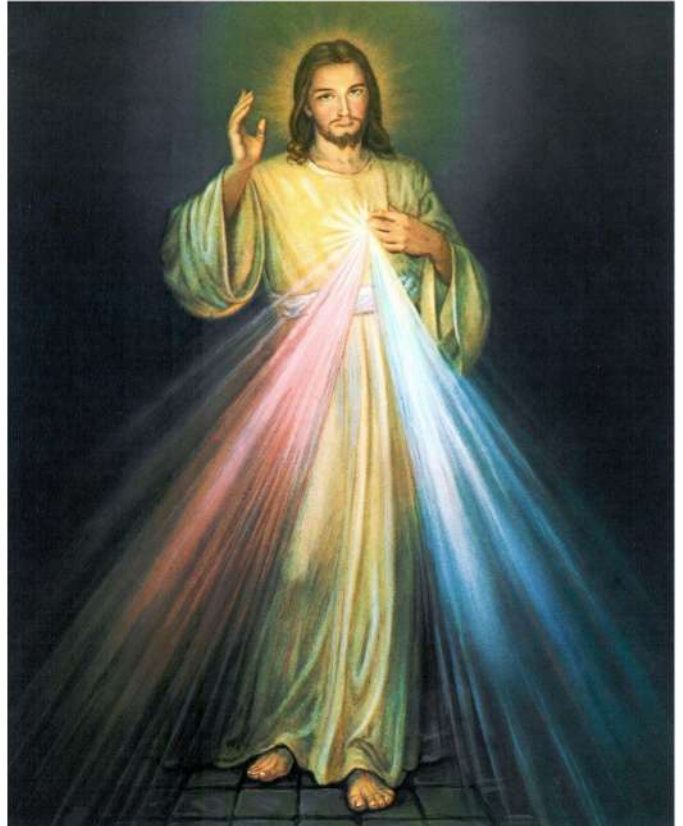

Living the Message

The Divine Mercy message calls us to live out our Catholic faith more fully. We participate in God's mercy by receiving the Sacraments, practicing corporal and spiritual works of mercy, and trusting in God's loving providence.

Mary, Our Lady of Mercy

The Blessed Virgin Mary, under the title Our Lady of Mercy, plays a crucial role. We turn to her intercession, seeking her prayers to draw us closer to her Son's infinite mercy.

By embracing the message of Divine Mercy, we encounter the depths of God's love, deepen our connection to the Church, and are empowered to share this gift with the world.
